

Benefits Essentials HR & Benefits Library

Did you know that employees win lawsuits two-thirds of the time with the average employment practices verdict exceeding $250,000 and the cost of defense exceeding $100,000?*

Did you know that in a recent survey of companies, 57% said they had dealt with an employee-related lawsuit in the past five years?*

How do you protect your company from the time, expense and distress associated with employee-related lawsuits?

The answer is simply...Benefits Essentials. This site features thousands of pages of content about topics that every business needs to know, including:

- Employee benefits – federal and state requirements with concise explanations
- Downloadable sample employee handbook
- Human resource and employment information
- Hundreds of downloadable forms, policies and checklists
- Acronyms such as COBRA, ERISA, FMLA, HIPAA and others are clearly explained.

All this content is provided in an easy-to-navigate, timesaving format that helps you to be more proactive and knowledgeable.
